regret his early death. He is survived

Tower Clock Stops—Parish Whist Club Organized.

The church improvement society of the Friday afternoon with Mrs. Abbie L.

Hale of Lathrop avenue. A social afternoon was enjoyed. The program and cake were served by the hostess. There was an attendance of about seventy-five.

have occupied one of L. F. Evans' ten-of West Town street have returned from Hartford, where they attended the twenty-eighth annual convention of the Connecticut Dairymen's association. They report an interesting and instructive meeting.

What Stops the Clock.
There have been many inquiries made concerning the recent stopping of the clock in the tower of the First church. Where the bell is, there is an open space with a lead floor under the bell, and a lead floor under the rain and snow leak through into the works of the clock, thereby causing it to stop and necessitating a good deal of extra work for the one who is obliged to start it up again.

BILLINGS HALL WILL BE HIRED.

Will be Fitted Up Immediately and Classes will be Re-graded and New Teacher Secured—East Side School Meeting Lasted 25 Minutes.

In contrast to the several long meetings held in the last few weeks by the Bridge school district in discussion of ways of alleviating the crowded condition at the school building, the voters transacted their business with great promptness at the meeting held Friday evening at the schoolhouse to hear the report of the special committee of nine appointed at the last special meeting.
Twenty-five minutes after Committeeman Henry Gebrath had called the meeting to order, the committee reported, remarks being made and the vote taken authorizing the plan proposed of hiring Billings hall and the meeting adjourned.

After he had called the largely attended meeting to order, Committeeman Gebrath was elected chairman, and Walter H. Spaulding was chosen clerk. The clerk read the call, and James C. Blackburn, one of the committee of nine, passed in the report of the special committee when it was called for. Clerk Spaulding read the report, which set out in detail the findings of the committee, and its conference with the town board of school visitors. It concluded with offering a resolution authorizing the committee to move to hire Billings hall for five months at a rental of $150, to fit it up immediately for school use, to hire an other teacher, to regrade the school in conjunction with the town board, and to borrow and expend such money as was now needed, not to exceed $100.

TAFTVILLE.

Death of Anthony Murphy After Six Weeks' Illness—Pinochle Club's Social a Grand Success—Shooting Club Elects Officers—Notes.

Anthony Murphy passed away at his home on Merchants avenue Friday afternoon at 1:30, after having been confined to his home for over a month.
The cause of his death was stomach trouble, with which he had been suffering for three months and his decease was not unexpected.

Mr. Murphy was the son of John and Annora Murphy and was born in Dublin, Ireland, February 6, 1883.
When a boy of six he came with his parents to this country and lived in Greenville for a number of years. He has been a resident of Taftville for thirty-four years. Mr. Murphy has always been a carpenter by trade and was employed by Andrew Carey and by H. Blackledge & Co. For the past fifteen years Mr. Murphy has been in business for himself as a carpenter and contractor. Among the buildings he constructed is the rectory of the Sacred Heart parish.

June 15, 1897, he was united in marriage with Miss Abby Sullivan of Taft-ville, Rev. John Synott performing the ceremony. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Murphy, three girls and three boys, the oldest nearly ten years old and the youngest 15 months. They are, in order of age, Miss Mary, Abbie and Honora, John, Anthony, Mary, Abbie and Thomas. He also leaves five daughters, Misses Mary and Katherine Murphy of New Britain, Mrs. John Wood of Taftville, Mrs. George O'Neil of Norwich and Mrs. William F. Hart-igan of Worcester. There are four brothers, James and John Murphy of New Britain, and William and Harvey Murphy of Norwich. Mr. Murphy was a cousin of Rev. Patrick McCormick of Bridgeport and of D. J. Mc-Cormick of Norwich.

Mr. Murphy was above all else a family man, and he found his greatest satisfaction in his home. He was a man not upright dealing with his fellow men, at every husband and father, and an affectionate brother.
In his death the community loses a conscientious citizen and the Sacred Heart church a faithful member. The sympathy of all goes out to his beloved family.
